Instructions for Applying for Initial Endorsement as a Nurse Practitioner in Prince Edward Island

The following steps must be followed when applying for initial endorsement as a Nurse Practitioner with the Association of Registered Nurses of Prince Edward Island (ARNPEI).

PART I - Complete and return to ARNPEI at the above address.

PART II - Forward to the school of nursing where you completed your Nurse Practitioner educational program and request them to complete and return it directly to ARNPEI. The school of nursing may ask you to pay a fee for this service.

Upon receipt of the above we will notify you as to your eligibility to apply for the Nurse Practitioner examination. Please note that registration and current licensure as a Registered Nurse is mandatory before your Registered Nurse license can be endorsed to practice as a Nurse Practitioner in Prince Edward Island.
